

GOTV in Arizona

First things first

Register to vote:

- Go to: vote411.org/pflag
 - Check your registration status
 - If you are not registered – REGISTER NOW.
 - Find information about who is eligible to vote in Arizona
- When you register you will be asked for your current address and ID Number (driver's license, state ID, or social security number).
- The voter registration deadline in Arizona is October 7.

A registrant who attests to being a citizen but fails to provide proof of citizenship will be eligible to vote only in federal elections.

In April 2022, the legislature passed a law requiring proof of citizenship to be eligible to vote in presidential elections (2492); however, this law has not yet gone into effect.

Voter Identification

In Arizona, photo IDs are required to register and cast a ballot.

- Two valid forms of ID without a photo can fulfill the voter identification requirement granted they bear your name and address (e.g., current utility bill or bank statement, Indian census card, a property tax statement)
- For more information visit: vote411.org/pflag

Acceptable Photo ID

Valid AZ driver license

Valid AZ non-operating identification card

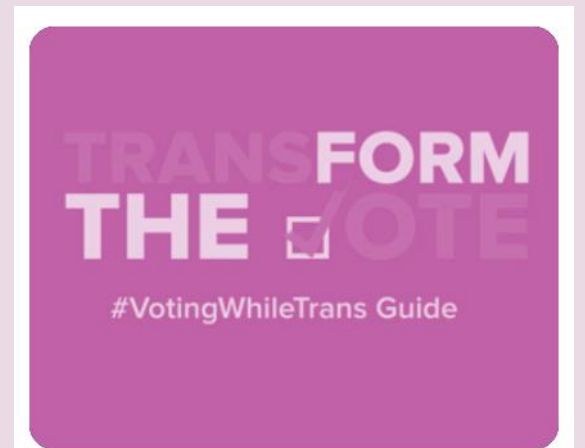

Tribal enrollment card or other form of tribal identification

Valid US federal, state, or local government-issued identification

Voting While Trans/Nonbinary

The state of Arizona does not provide any specific guidance for trans and nonbinary voters. Here are a few recommendations from Advocates for Trans Equality:

- Bring valid ID and backups (voter registration card, utility bill)
- Share the #VotingWhileTrans guide with poll workers
- If needed, connect with a volunteer attorney on-site or call the National Election Protection Hotline (866-OUR-VOTE)
- Worst case, request and cast a provisional ballot and be sure to ask for follow-up instructions

TRANSform the Vote

Voting While Living With a Disability

- Voters with a permanent physical disability may request to be placed on the Active Early Voter List. This will allow them to vote from their own home. You can register online here: servicearizona.com/VoterRegistration
- Voters that cannot enter the polling place may ask that a ballot be brought to their car parked curbside.
- All voting locations will have an accessible device for use by voters with disabilities. Each location will also have magnifying instruments, large print versions of the publicity pamphlets, and trained poll workers who can assist you.
- The Arizona Center for Disability Law will run a hotline to address any election concerns for persons with disabilities. You can reach them by calling 602-274-6287 or 1-800-927-2260

Absentee voting or voting by mail

Vote by mail.

- Arizona does not require an excuse for absentee voting.
- Voters must request their absentee ballot by October 25.
- In Arizona, an absentee ballot must be received by 7pm on November 5.
- You can request an absentee ballot here: azsos.gov/votebymail

PFLAG recommends that voters request their absentee ballots as soon as possible and get them in the mailbox no later than Tuesday, October 22.
