

GOTV in Connecticut

First things first

Register to vote:

- Go to: vote411.org/pflag
 - Check your registration status
 - If you are not registered – REGISTER NOW.
 - Find information about who is eligible to vote in Connecticut
- When you register you will be asked for your current address and ID Number (driver's license, state ID, or social security number).
- The voter registration deadline in Colorado is October 18.

You can register to vote on election day in Connecticut (but not at your polling place).

Find a "Same Day Registration" (SDR) location
here: portal.ct.gov/sots/election-services/election-day-registration/election-day-registration

Voter Identification

In Connecticut, identification is sometimes required to cast a ballot.

- First time voters who registered by mail must provide valid identification or cast a provisional ballot.
- All other voters (most voters) must:
 - Present a social security card or any printed form of identification that shows your name and address, or name and signature, or name and photograph; OR sign a statement under penalty of perjury that you are the same person that appears on the official election checklist.
 - For more information visit: vote411.org/pflag

Acceptable ID

Driver's License

Current utility bill,
bank statement,
government check,
or paycheck

US Passport

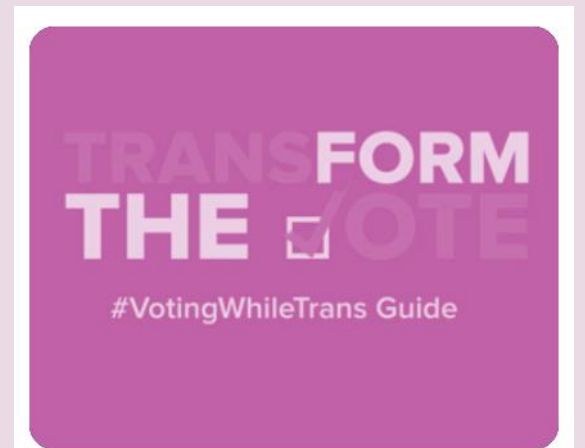

US Military ID Card

And More!

Voting While Trans/Nonbinary

The state of Connecticut does not provide any specific guidance for trans and nonbinary voters. Here are a few recommendations from Advocates for Trans Equality:

- Bring valid ID and backups (voter registration card, utility bill)
- Share the #VotingWhileTrans guide with poll workers
- If needed, connect with a volunteer attorney on-site or call the National Election Protection Hotline (866-OUR-VOTE)
- Worst case, request and cast a provisional ballot and be sure to ask for follow-up instructions

TRANSform the Vote

Voting While Living With a Disability

- You can obtain permanent absentee voter status if you have a permanent disability.
- An accessible ballot marking device is available at every polling place.
- Curbside voting is available for those that "become temporarily incapacitated" when they arrive at the polling place.
- You can obtain an emergency absentee ballot if you are suddenly injured or ill within six days of the election.
- You can ask to move to the front of the line or request a chair if you physically cannot stand in line.
- For more information: portal.ct.gov/sots/election-services/accessible-voting

Absentee voting or voting by mail

Vote by mail.

- Connecticut requires an excuse for absentee voting. Valid excuses include:
 - An absence from your town on Election Day
 - A sickness or disability (not necessarily your own) that prevents you from appearing at your polling place
 - Active duty military service
 - Religious tenets that forbid secular activity on the day of the election

Absentee voting or voting by mail

Vote by mail.

- Voters must request their absentee ballot by November 4.
- You can request an absentee ballot here: oabr-sots.ct.gov/OABR/absenteeBallotReqPortalHome.do.
- In Connecticut, an absentee ballot must be received by November 5 (Election Day).
- Your absentee ballot can be hand delivered to your local election office or a drop box on election day.

PFLAG recommends that voters request their absentee ballots as soon as possible and get them in the mailbox no later than Tuesday, October 22.

Early voting

Vote early.

- All registered voters in Connecticut can vote early for any reason.
- You can find information about early voting locations in Colorado a here: vote411.org/pflag
- Early voting begins in Connecticut on October 21 and ends on November 3.
- Voters who plan to vote early in Connecticut are required to have ID. Learn more here: portal.ct.gov/sots/election-services/faq/faq---voter-identification

Getting Out The Vote

Voting on Election Day:

Vote on election day.

- Polls open in Connecticut at 6am and close at 8pm on Tuesday, November 5.
- You can find information about the location of your polling place here: vote411.org/pflag.
- If you arrive and are told you won't be allowed to vote:
 - Don't panic. Ask why, fix any problems, ask about same day registration, request a provisional ballot, etc.
 - Call 866-OUR-VOTE or 888-VE-Y-VOTA.

If you are in line to vote
when the polls close,
STAY IN LINE.