Voting While Trans/Nonbinary

The state of Florida does not provide any specific guidance for trans and nonbinary voters. Here are a few recommendations from Advocates for Trans Equality:

- Bring valid ID and backups (voter registration card, utility bill)
- Share the #VotingWhileTrans guide with poll workers
- If needed, connect with a volunteer attorney on-site or call the National Election Protection Hotline (866-OUR-VOTE)
- Worst case, request and cast a provisional ballot and be sure to ask for follow-up instructions

TRANSform the Vote

Voting While Living With a Disability

- Voters with a disability can submit a ballot by mail.
- Depending on the county, there are different systems that allow you to complete the ballot with an electronic device. What devices depend on the county. No matter what county though, ballots cannot be returned electronically. You will still have to return it by mail or in person. Contact your county Supervisor of Elections for more information: dos.elections.myflorida.com/supervisors/
- Supervised voting is available to any resident of an assisted living facility or nursing home. The facility's administrator must request the service. Requests can be made to your county's Supervisor of Elections: dos.elections.myflorida.com/supervisors/
- Curbside voting is not available; however, all polling places must be accessible for voting.

Absentee voting or voting by mail

Vote by mail.

- Florida does not require an excuse for absentee voting.
- Voters must request their absentee ballot by October 24.
- In Florida, an absentee ballot must be received by 7pm on November 5.
- You can request an absentee ballot here: [myfloridaelections.com/
Contact-your-SOE](https://myfloridaelections.com/Contact-your-SOE).
- Your absentee ballot cannot be hand delivered to any polling place on Election Day but it can be returned at a local election office or a drop box.

PFLAG recommends that voters request their absentee ballots as soon as possible and get them in the mailbox no later than Tuesday, October 22.

Early voting

Vote early.

- All registered voters in Florida can vote early for any reason.
- Early voting is available from at least October 26 – November 2. Additional dates and hours may be offered in your county. All information on locations, dates, and hours for early voting will be posted by October 5.
- You can find information about early voting locations in Florida here: vote411.org/pflag
- Voters who plan to vote early in Florida are required to have photo identification with signature.
