Voting While Trans/Nonbinary

The state of Hawaii does not provide any specific guidance for trans and nonbinary voters. Here are a few recommendations from Advocates for Trans Equality:

- Bring valid ID and backups (voter registration card, utility bill)
- Share the #VotingWhileTrans guide with poll workers
- If needed, connect with a volunteer attorney on-site or call the National Election Protection Hotline (866-OUR-VOTE)
- Worst case, request and cast a provisional ballot and be sure to ask for follow-up instructions

TRANSform the Vote

Voting While Living With a Disability

- You can vote at home with an accessible electronic ballot and return the voted ballot electronically or by using the return ballot envelope.
- You can vote at a voter service center using a ballot marking device. The device includes a large touchscreen interface, tactile buttons, audio, adjustable text size and contrast, and it is compatible with external tactile switches and "sip and puff" devices.
- Curbside voting is available at all voter service centers.
- All voter centers must be accessible, and you can have anyone except your employer or union representative assist you with completing your ballot.
- Find your County Elections Division here: elections.hawaii.gov/resources/county-election-divisions/

All registered voters automatically receive a mail ballot approximately eighteen days prior to the election (October 18).

Absentee voting or voting by mail

Vote by mail.

- Registered voters automatically receive a mail ballot. You only need to request a ballot if you'll be away from your Hawaii residence during the election.
Application: elections.hawaii.gov/voting/absentee-voting/
- In Hawai'i an absentee ballot must be received by 7pm on November 5.
- Your absentee ballot can be returned in person at a voter service center or drop box. You can find locations here: elections.hawaii.gov/voter-service-centers-and-places-of-deposit/

PFLAG recommends that voters get their ballots in the mailbox no later than Tuesday, October 22.

Early voting

Vote early.

- All registered voters in Hawaii can vote early for any reason.
- Early voting begins in Hawaii on October 22 and ends on November 4.
- You can find information about early voting locations in Hawaii here:
