Voting While Trans/Nonbinary

The state of Idaho does not provide any specific guidance for trans and nonbinary voters. Here are a few recommendations from Advocates for Trans Equality:

- Bring valid ID and backups (voter registration card, utility bill)
- Share the #VotingWhileTrans guide with poll workers
- If needed, connect with a volunteer attorney on-site or call the National Election Protection Hotline (866-OUR-VOTE)
- Worst case, request and cast a provisional ballot and be sure to ask for follow-up instructions

TRANSform the Vote

Voting While Living With a Disability

- All voting locations will provide voting equipment that offers audio, adjustable font sizes, adjustable contracts, and adaptations for marking the ballot.
- Idaho law allows for curbside voting; however, no information is provided on Idaho's voting website confirming that it'll be available.
- You can bring someone with you to assist in the voting process or request help from an election worker.
- If you have any questions or concerns, contact your County Elections Office: voteidaho.gov/county-clerk/

Absentee voting or voting by mail

Vote by mail.

- Idaho does not require an excuse for absentee voting.
- Voters must request their absentee ballot by October 25 online or November 1 in person.
- In Idaho, an absentee ballot must be received by 8pm on November 5.
- You can request an absentee ballot here: elections.sos.idaho.gov/ElectionLink
- Your absentee ballot cannot be hand delivered to a polling place on election day. You must return it by mail or at a secure ballot drop box.

PFLAG recommends that voters request their absentee ballots as soon as possible and get them in the mailbox no later than Tuesday, October 22.

Early voting

Vote early.

- Some counties offer early voting. Any registered voter in that county may vote early. Check with your county elections office for early voting availability, dates, and times: voteidaho.gov/county-clerk/
- You can find information about early voting locations in Idaho here: vote411.org/pflag
- Voters who plan to vote early in Idaho are required to have identification. Learn more here: voteidaho.gov/guide-to-vote-in-person/

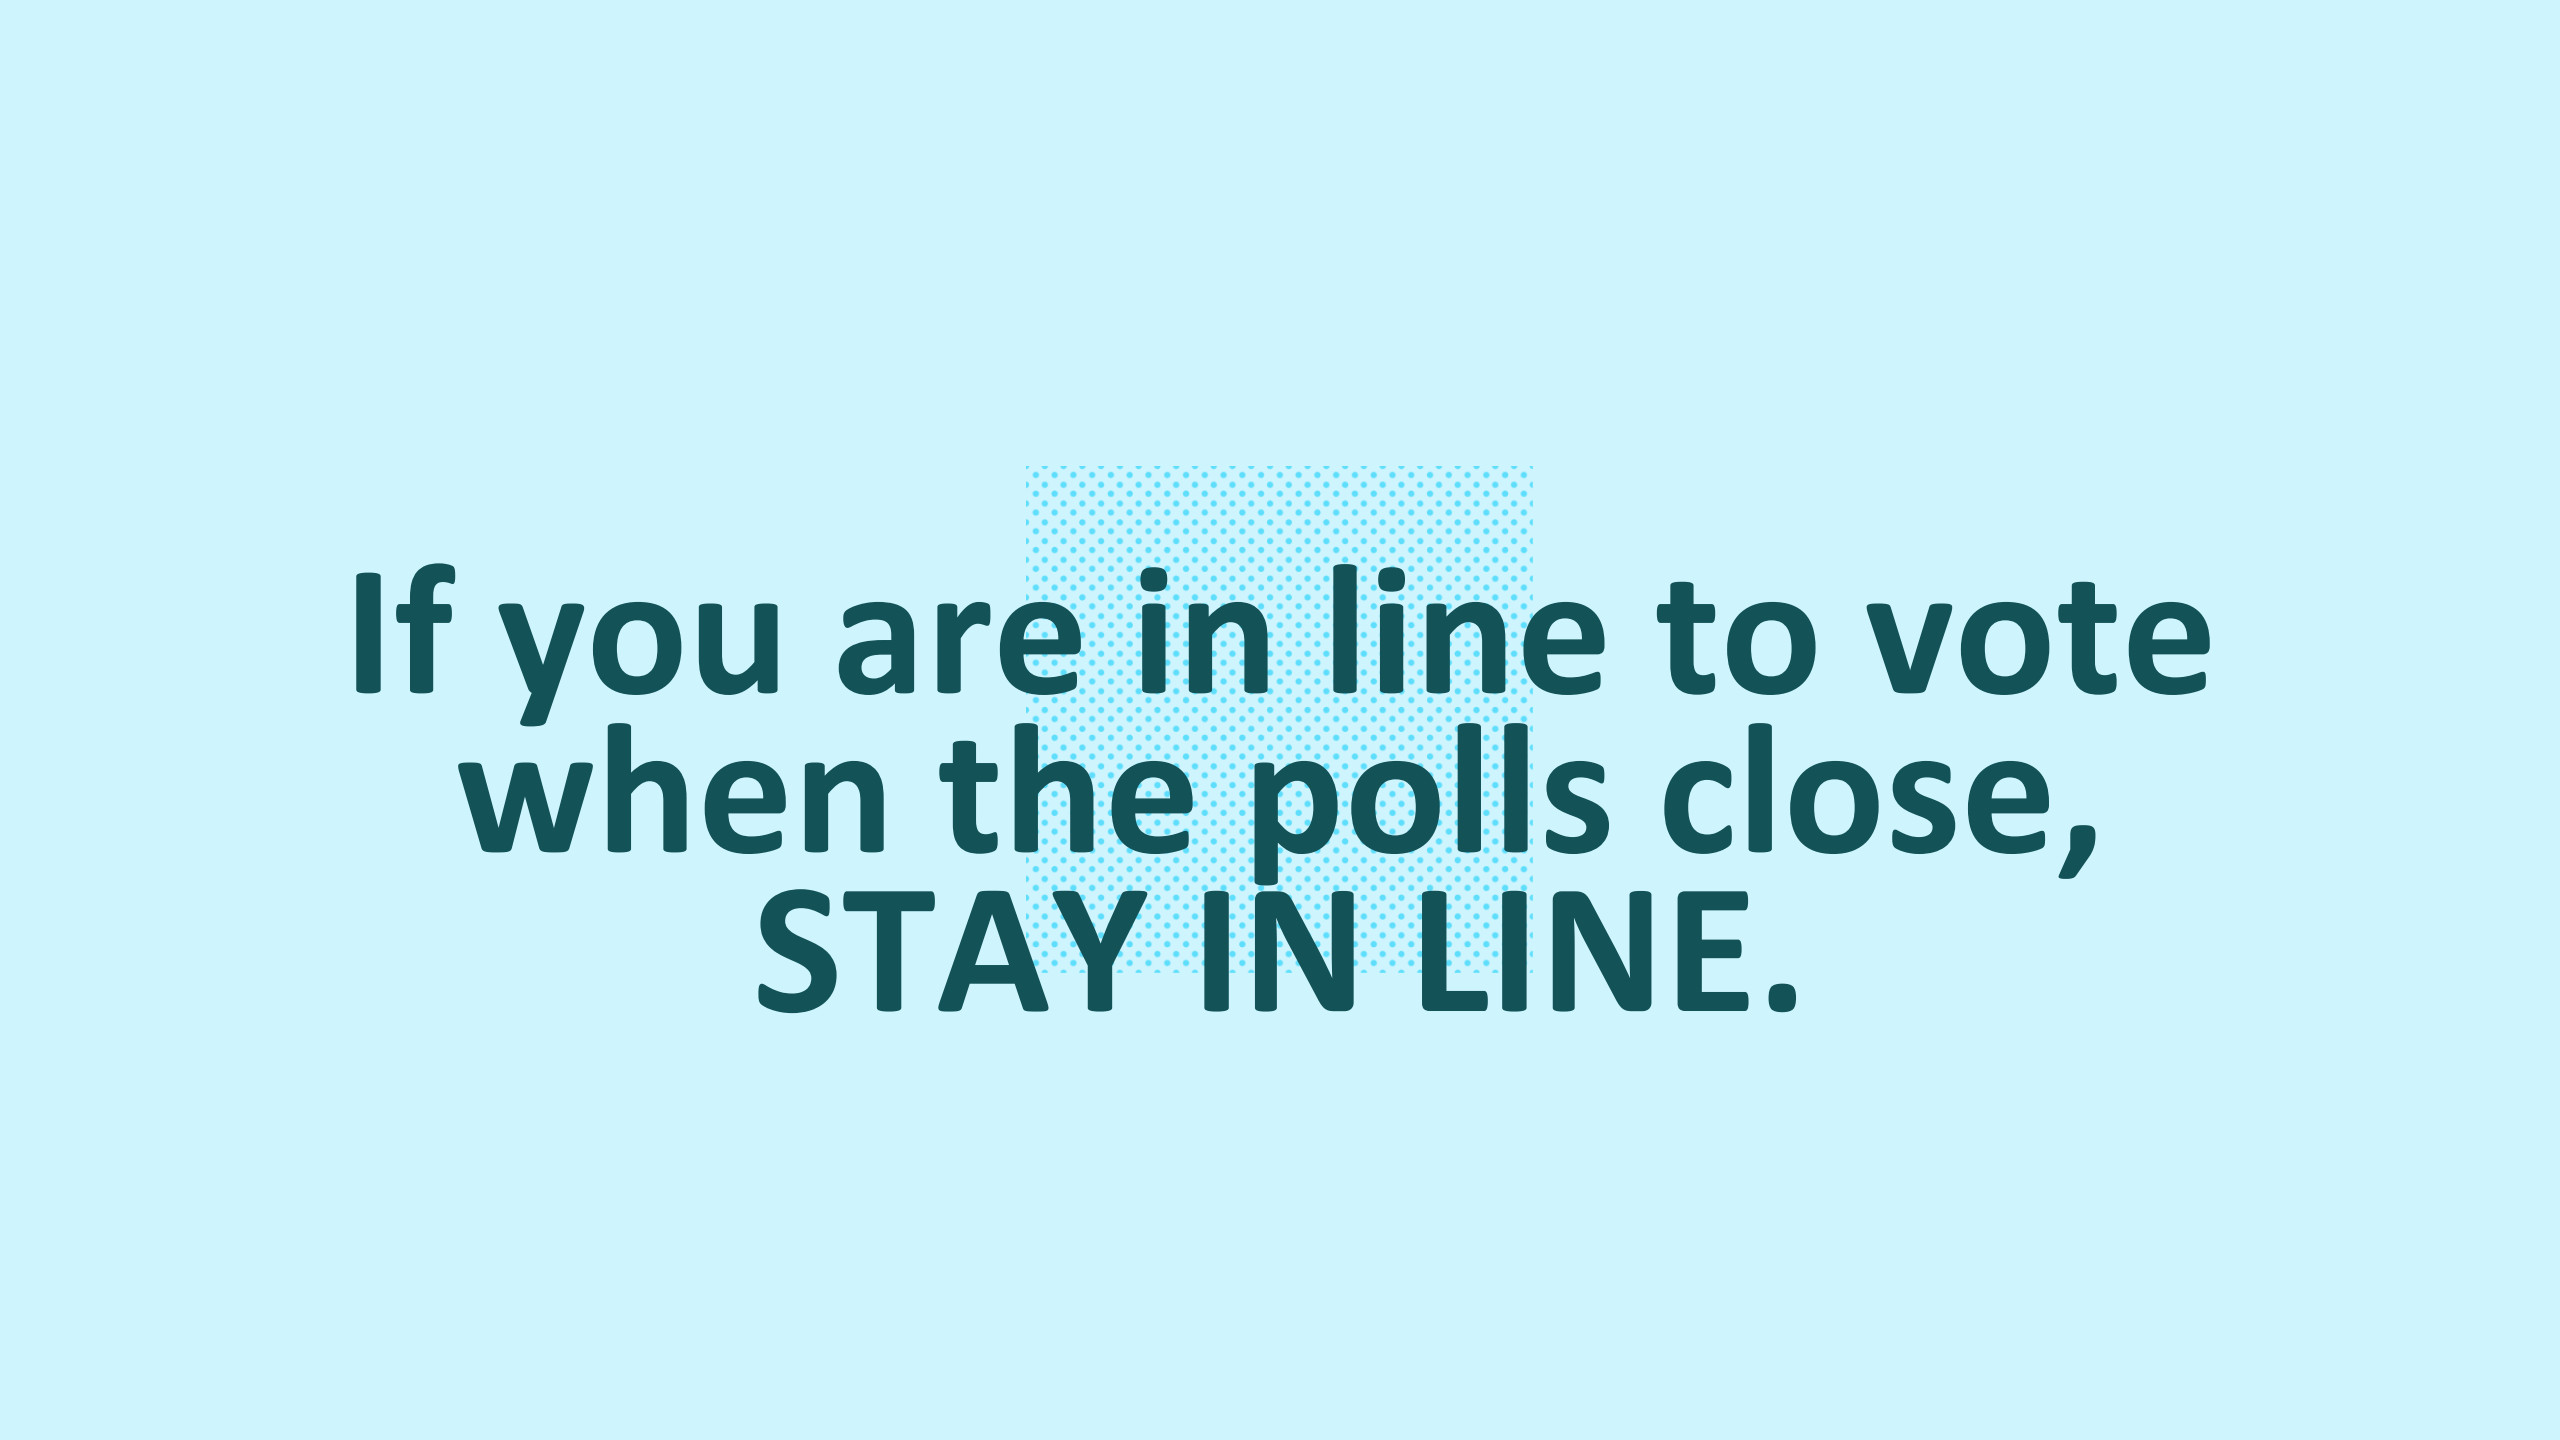

Getting Out The Vote

Voting on Election Day:

Vote on election day.

- Polls open in Idaho at 8am and close at 8pm on Tuesday, November 5.
- You can find information about the location of your polling place here: vote411.org/pflag
- If you arrive and are told you won't be allowed to vote:
 - Don't panic. Ask why, fix any problems, ask about same day registration, request a provisional ballot, etc.
 - Call 866-OUR-VOTE or 888-VE-Y-VOTA

If you are in line to vote
when the polls close,
STAY IN LINE.
