Voting While Trans/Nonbinary

The state of Nevada does not provide any specific guidance for trans and nonbinary voters. Here are a few recommendations from Advocates for Trans Equality:

- Bring valid ID and backups (voter registration card, utility bill)
- Share the #VotingWhileTrans guide with poll workers
- If needed, connect with a volunteer attorney on-site or call the National Election Protection Hotline (866-OUR-VOTE)
- Worst case, request and cast a provisional ballot and be sure to ask for follow-up instructions

TRANSform the Vote

Voting While Living With a Disability

- You may use the EASE online system to register to vote and complete an electronic ballot. Learn more here: nvease.gov/
- All polling locations in Nevada have been certified compliant under the ADA.
- All county election officials are required to make reasonable accommodations. Contact your county clerk/registrar if you have any concerns: nvsos.gov/sos/elections/voters/county-clerk-contact-information
- Every polling place will have a voting booth that includes ample room for wheelchair access, audio, and sip and puff compatibility. All voting machines also have large print and zoom capabilities.

Absentee voting or voting by mail

Vote by mail.

- All registered voters will receive a ballot by mail if they register before or on October 22.
- In Nevada, an absentee ballot must be postmarked by November 5 and received by November 9 if returning by mail. If returning in person, ballots must be received by November 5.
- Your absentee ballot can be hand delivered to a polling location on election day.

PFLAG recommends that voters get their ballots in the mailbox no later than Tuesday, October 22.

Early voting

Vote early.

- All registered voters in Nevada can vote early for any reason.
- You can find information about early voting locations in Nevada here: vote411.org/pflag
- Early voting begins in Nevada on October 19 and ends on November 1.
