Voting While Trans/Nonbinary

The state of South Dakota does not provide any specific guidance for trans and nonbinary voters. Here are a few recommendations from Advocates for Trans Equality:

- Bring valid ID and backups (voter registration card, utility bill)
- Share the #VotingWhileTrans guide with poll workers
- If needed, connect with a volunteer attorney on-site or call the National Election Protection Hotline (866-OUR-VOTE)
- Worst case, request and cast a provisional ballot and be sure to ask for follow-up instructions

TRANSform the Vote

Voting While Living With a Disability

- All polling places will have an accessible voting machine called the, ExpressVote. It will allow for your ballot to be enlarged, shown in reverse contrast, and can provide an audio description of the ballot.
- Voters with disabilities can vote an absentee (mail-in) ballot.
- Curbside voting is not available.
- More information: sdsos.gov/elections-voting/voting/polling-place-accessibility.aspx

Absentee voting or voting by mail

Vote by mail.

- South Dakota does not require an excuse for absentee voting.
- You can download an absentee ballot application here: sdsos.gov/elections-voting/assets/AbsenteeApplication_202012.PDF.
- Applications to vote by mail must include either a photocopy of the voter's ID or a signature from a notary.
- Voters must request their absentee ballot by November 4.

Absentee voting or voting by mail

Vote by mail.

- In South Dakota, an absentee ballot must be received by your County Election Official on November 5 with "enough time to deliver your ballot to your voting precinct before the polls close."
- Your absentee ballot cannot be hand delivered to your polling place on election day.
- You must return the ballot by mail or to your County Election Official. Drop boxes have been outlawed in South Dakota.

PFLAG recommends that voters request their absentee ballots as soon as possible and get them in the mailbox no later than Tuesday, October 22.

Early Voting

Vote early.

- All registered voters in South Dakota can vote early for any reason.
- You can vote early at your county auditor's office. You can find information about early voting locations in South Dakota here: vote411.org/pflag
- Early voting begins in South Dakota on September 20 and ends on November 4.
- Voters who plan to vote early in South Dakota are required to have identification. Learn more here: sdsos.gov/elections-voting/voting/default.aspx
