Voting While Trans/Nonbinary

The state of Texas does not provide any specific guidance for trans and nonbinary voters. Here are a few recommendations from Advocates for Trans Equality:

- Bring valid ID and backups (voter registration card, utility bill)
- Share the #VotingWhileTrans guide with poll workers
- If needed, connect with a volunteer attorney on-site or call the National Election Protection Hotline (866-OUR-VOTE)
- Worst case, request and cast a provisional ballot and be sure to ask for follow-up instructions

TRANSform the Vote

Voting While Living With a Disability

- If you need assistance at the polls, tell an election official. You do NOT have to provide proof of your disability.
- Voters can have a ballot brought to their car parked at the curbside if they are unable to enter the polling place.
- If you have a disability, you can apply to vote by mail. Voters must request their mail-in ballot by October 25, 2024.
- For additional information, visit: votetexas.gov/voters-with-special-needs/.

Absentee voting or voting by mail

Vote by mail.

- Texas requires an excuse for voting by mail. Valid excuses include being:
 - Over the age of 65, sick, or disabled
 - Out of the country on election day and the early voting period
 - Expected to give birth within three weeks of Election Day
 - Civilly committed under Texas 841 or confined to jail but otherwise eligible

Absentee voting or voting by mail

Vote by mail.

- In order to vote by mail Texas residents must have a TX driver license, ID card, election ID certificate, or Social Security Card.
- Voters must request their absentee ballot by October 25, 2024.
- You can request an absentee ballot here: votetexas.gov
- In Texas an absentee ballot must be postmarked by 7:00 pm on Tuesday, November 5 and received by 5:00 Wednesday, November 6.
- Your absentee ballot can be hand delivered on election day.

PFLAG recommends that voters request their absentee ballots as soon as possible and get them in the mailbox no later than Tuesday, October 22.

Early Voting

Vote early.

- All registered voters in Texas can vote early for any reason.
- You can find information about early voting locations in Texas here: vote411.org/pflag
- Early voting begins in Texas on October 21 and ends on November 1.
- Voters who plan to vote early in Texas can vote at any location in their county of residence.
- All other rules and procedures, including ID requirements and polling hours, apply to early voting.
