Voting While Trans/Nonbinary

The state of Wyoming does not provide any specific guidance for trans and nonbinary voters. Here are a few recommendations from Advocates for Trans Equality:

- Bring valid ID and backups (voter registration card, utility bill)
- Share the #VotingWhileTrans guide with poll workers
- If needed, connect with a volunteer attorney on-site or call the National Election Protection Hotline (866-OUR-VOTE)
- Worst case, request and cast a provisional ballot and be sure to ask for follow-up instructions

TRANSform the Vote

Voting While Living With a Disability

- The Wyoming Secretary of State does not (currently) provide guidance online for people with disabilities; however, federal law requires polling places to have specific accommodations available.
- All polling places must be accessible and provide at least one accessible voting machine.
- Contact your county clerk to find out what accessible equipment is used and instructions for that equipment.
- Curbside voting is legal in Wyoming though information about how to access it is not available.
- Voters with disabilities are able to vote from home with an absentee ballot.

Absentee voting or voting by mail

Vote by mail.

- Wyoming does not require an excuse for absentee voting.
- Voters must request their absentee ballot by November 4.
- In Wyoming, an absentee ballot must be received by 7pm on November 5.
- You can request an absentee ballot by phone, email, mail, in person, or online. You can find more information here: sos.wyo.gov/elections/state/absenteevoting.aspx
- Your absentee ballot cannot be hand delivered to your polling place on election day. You must return it via mail or hand deliver to your county clerk's office.

PFLAG recommends that voters request their absentee ballots as soon as possible and get them in the mailbox no later than Tuesday, October 22.

Early Voting

Vote early.

- All registered voters in Wyoming can vote early for any reason.
- You can find information about early voting locations in Wyoming here: vote411.org/pflag
- Early voting begins in Wyoming on October 8 and ends on November 4.
